

A photograph of the Lulu Island Winery building and its entrance. In the foreground, a large wooden barrel sits atop a signpost. The signpost features a purple sign with 'Lulu Island WINERY' in gold lettering. Below it, a blue sign reads 'OPEN DAILY 10:00am-6:30pm' and 'www.luluislandwinery.com'. The building in the background is a two-story structure with a stone facade and a red-tiled roof. A tall black lamppost stands to the right of the entrance, holding two red and white banners. The address '16330' is visible on a green mailbox. The sky is overcast, and the ground appears wet.
